Ten cases of Typhus Fever were received into the Hospital during the year, six of them being sent from other Hospitals, three admitted free as members of the artisan class, and one policeman, under the agreement relating to the admission of members of the force. It is not expected that cases of this form of fever will again be numerous, since it prevails almost exclusively in the classes provided for in the pauper fever asylums, and it is probable that those sent will be chiefly from other Hospitals as has been the case during the past year. Of the ten cases 4 died, thus giving a mortality of 40 per cent.

Of Enteric Fever 61 cases were admitted during the year, 35 males and 26 females. Four of these occupied private wards, 13 were domestic servants, 6 employés in houses of business, and two came from schools; 36 of the entire number being admitted by payment of some kind or other, 21 free, and 5 more by Governor's orders. Of 25 mechanics, or members of families belonging to this class, 20 were admitted without payment, and fees were paid for only five.

The deaths among the cases treated to their termination during the year were 13 in number, 7 males, and 6 females, giving a general average mortality of 21·3 per cent; and a mortality of 20 per cent. among the males, of 23·07 per cent. among the females. Of the 13 patients who died, however, five were evidently moribund on admission, and three died within 48 hours, one within three and another four days after admission. Deducting these, the percentage of death becomes 14·28.

During the past year Enteric Fever has prevailed in the Metropolis to an unusually slight degree, but a remarkable outbreak occurred towards the end of the summer in the Western Districts, which was traced by Dr. Murchison, Consulting Physician to the Hospital, to the distribution of milk contaminated by the poison of this disease, and although only five cases admitted into the Hospital were directly attributable to the use of this milk, the circumstances of the outbreak demand some notice. In the first week of August, Dr. Murchison became aware of the almost simultaneous appearance of Enteric Fever in a large number of families in the neighbourhood, of Cavendish, Grosvenor, and Portman Squares, which could not be traced to either defective drainage, or to the water supply, or to any of the usual sources of fever. Unfortunately his own children were among those attacked, and an investigation of the circumstances attending the appearance of the disease in his household, and an inquiry as to the milk supply of the numerous other families affected made it plain that the fever poison was conveyed in the milk of a particular dairy. On the 13th of August, Dr. Murchison was able to state in a letter urging the Directors to suspend the distribution of this milk, that of sixty families of the better classes in which Enteric Fever had appeared during the past month, all but one were using it. Sir William Jenner and Dr. Whitmore, the Medical Officer of Health for Marylebone, from the first agreed with Dr. Murchison as to the source of the outbreak, and co-operated with him in the endeavour to procure its arrest. Their conclusions were fully justified by the result of an investigation which elicited the fact that on one of the farms from which the milk was procured, there had been cases of Enteric Fever, while the arrangements were such that the water employed for washing and cooling the cans could not escape contamination. It has been computed that at least 500 cases of fever were traceable to the use of this milk, and not the least of Dr. Murchison's public services has been the prompt discovery of the source of the poison.

In four cases there was an absence of characteristic rose spots; one of these died. In one case the rare eruption of "taches bleuâtres" was observed.

The number of cases of Scarlet Fever admitted during the year was 45; of these 18 were males and 27 females, the females predominating as usual, in consequence of the greater exposure of women to this disease as nurses. Compared with 1872, there is a diminution in the admissions, the number in that year being 68. Of the 18 males two died, giving a mortality of 11·1 per cent; of the 27 females, one died, or 3·7 per cent.; the average mortality among all the patients suffering from scarlet fever being 6·6 per cent. Of the three deaths, two were in children under the age of five years out of four cases.

The only change in the Officers of the Hospital to be reported is the resignation of Mr. Turner, the Resident Medical Officer, on obtaining the important post of Medical Officer of Health to the Town and District of Portsmouth, and the appointment as his successor of Mr. F. A. Mahomed.

It will be easily understood that the small amount of work done by the Institution, in comparison with its capabilities, and with the expense required for its maintenance, has occasioned the Committee and all who are actively concerned in the working of the Hospital much anxiety. A Sub-Committee was at once appointed after the last Annual General Meeting, to consider the question referred by it to the Committee, namely, whether other cases than those of Fever could with safety be admitted into the Hospital, and at intervals throughout the year various schemes have been proposed and discussed for extending its usefulness. It has been found impossible, however, as yet to come to any other conclusion than that further trial should be made on the existing basis. The Registrar-General's Reports throughout the year, have shown an extraordinarily low fever average, and the pauper Fever Asylums at Homerton and Stockwell, have found their accommodation almost as largely in excess of the requirements as the Fever Hospital. It must be mentioned also that just before the epidemic of Typhus which set in in 1862, the numbers had fallen so low that the question whether the Institution should not be made into a general Hospital had arisen. It is not yet generally known either among the working classes, who are expected to furnish the greater part of the cases admitted in the future, or to the medical men who attend them, that the Hospital is now open to them without either the payment of a fee, or the necessity of obtaining a Governor's letter. This is shown by the frequent inquiries made of the Physicians and others known to be connected with the Hospital as to the terms of admission, and has been more particularly illustrated by the fact that an article in the Times on January 20th, giving an account of the Hospital brought within a week nearly twenty cases, all of whom required, and some most pressingly, the accommodation offered by the Hospital, but were ignorant of its availability. It is probable that at any given time there will be as many persons among the same classes ill with fever, and if this be so, the need for the Hospital exists, and the material for the exercise of its usefulness will be supplied.

Twelve patients have been received into the private wards during the year. This number, though small, is sufficient to justify the arrangement, and in no department of its work has the Hospital been of greater service than in meeting the emergencies which had arisen in the case of some of the patients who had occupied private rooms. One of these cases, that of Dr. Gwynne Harries, as it was the subject of remark at the time, in the Times and other journals, may be mentioned here. This gentleman, one of the Medical Officers under the Local Government Board, contracted scarlet fever in the course of some investigations he was making in the North of England. He arrived seriously ill at an hotel in London, and was thence brought to the Hospital, where he died within twenty-four hours of his admission. The committee cannot better show the usefulness of the private rooms, than by publishing the letter of Dr. Buchanan, on the part of Mr. Simon, Head of the Medical Department of the Local Government Board :—

To the Chairman of the Committee, London Fever Hospital.

MY DEAR SIR,

Mr. Simon has given me the very welcome duty of tendering through you to the Fever Hospital and its Officers, the warmest thanks of the Medical Department of the Local Government Board and of every Member of the Staff of that Department, for the advantages which were given by your Hospital, to our late colleague, Dr. Gwynne Harries, and for the care and tenderness with which he was treated by your Officers during his last illness. Especially we desire to convey through you to your Resident Medical Officer, our most cordial acknowledgments for his affectionate and incessant solicitude for Dr. Harries.

I am, Dear Sir,

Faithfully Yours,

GEORGE BUCHANAN.

3, Parliament Street.

12, November, 1873.

The Committee, anxious to extend the usefulness of the Institution, have had under consideration two suggestions laid before them by their able and energetic Resident Medical Officer, Mr. Mahomed. These are to train a small staff of efficient Fever Nurses, to be sent out on hire to cases outside the Hospital, and to start a small cottage Convalescent Home for patients recovering from Scarlet Fever. By the first of these projects, which has been cordially adopted, a public requirement will be met in the guarantee of experience and competence which the Hospital training will afford, and at the same time it is expected to economise the nursing expenses of the Hospital. The second, which is still under consideration, has arisen out of the difficulty which occurs in every case of scarlet fever of disposing of the patient during the interval between the establishment of convalescence, and the time of which all fear of communicating the disease is at an end. Most of the cases treated in the Hospital have to be kept there at considerable expense for some time after it would be safe and advantageous to the patients themselves to leave, and there can be no doubt that a Convalescent Home would be eagerly taken advantage of. It is proposed to make it self supporting by means of a small weekly payment, and although primarily for the reception of patients of the Hospital, it would not be entirely restricted to them.

CHARLES FINN,

Secretary.

LONDON FEVER HOSPITAL,

LIVERPOOL ROAD, ISLINGTON.

LAWS AND REGULATIONS.

Objects of the Institution.

1. ALL poor persons (not being parochial paupers) and domestic servants of subscribers, labouring under contagious fever, and residing in the metropolis or its neighbourhood, shall be considered proper objects for this charity, and shall be admitted gratuitously, according to the next regulation. Parochial paupers, domestic servants of non-subscribers, and all inmates of other public charities (except medical hospitals), shall be admitted on the payment of such sum for each patient as the Committee shall from time to time determine.

2. On application for the admission of any patient to the Hospital, notice shall be immediately given to the resident medical officer, and the person after inspection may be admitted by an order signed by him, or on a certificate signed by any physician, surgeon, or apothecary, stating the disease to be fever of a contagious nature, or likely to become such. The order or certificate shall entitle the patient to admission, subject to the provisions contained in Rule No. 1, unless the case shall be deemed an improper one by the resident medical officer, or unless the Hospital shall be full.

Governors.

3. All subscribers of one guinea annually, or of ten guineas in one donation, shall be governors of this Hospital.

General Meeting and Election of the Committee.

4. A general meeting of the governors, of which ten days' previous notice must be given in three morning newspapers, shall be held every year, on the second Friday in February, or as near thereto as may be convenient, for the purpose of approving or rescinding the proceedings of the Committee for the preceding year; for receiving an annual report of the state of the funds; and for electing a president, vice-presidents, treasurer, honorary secretary, and other members of the Committee for the ensuing year. At all meetings connected with the affairs of the Hospital, a simple majority of the governors present and voting shall bind the minority; and in case of equality of votes, the chairman shall have an additional vote or casting vote.

5. A special general meeting of the governors may at any time be called by direction of the president or of the Committee; or on the requisition of any twelve governors, provided the requisition be made in writing to the Secretary, and the purpose for which the same is summoned be published in three morning newspapers at least ten days prior to the next meeting; but the proceedings of such special general meeting, though acted upon pro tempore, shall not be deemed final, until confirmed by another general meeting.

6. No new rule or law shall be made, nor shall any existing rule or law be repealed or altered, until determined upon at a general meeting by a majority of governors present and voting, and until confirmed at a subsequent general or special meeting.

7. The presence of seven governors shall be necessary to constitute a quorum at general meetings, and without that number no business shall be transacted.

8. At the annual general meeting, a Committee for the management of the Institution shall be elected, consisting of the president, the vice-presidents, the treasurer, honorary secretary, and twenty-four other governors; four of which governors shall not have been members of the preceding Committee. They shall meet on the last Friday, or on such other day of every month as the Committee may appoint; and three members shall be necessary to constitute a meeting, and to transact business. A special meeting of the Committee may be called by the direction of the treasurer, or by any three members of the Committee, on giving at least three days' notice of the same, and specifying the business for which it is called.

9. The Committee shall have authority to appoint sub-committees, whose reports shall be submitted to their consideration; they shall elect all the officers, except the physicians of the Hospital and the honorary secretary, who shall be elected by the governors at large; and, with the assistance of the medical officers, shall form regulations and bye-laws for the internal management of the Hospital.

10. The resolutions of one meeting of the Committee shall not be rescinded by another, unless it be specially summoned for that purpose. All accounts, except such small sums as may be comprised under the item of petty cash, shall be submitted to the Committee at the monthly meetings, after having been duly examined by the secretary, the resident medical officer, and the house-directors; and such accounts, if approved, shall be paid by cheques payable to order, signed in Committee by the chairman and one other member, or, in case a Committee cannot be formed, by two of the house-directors, and in all cases countersigned by the secretary. All the larger articles of supply, when practicable, shall be furnished by contract made after public tender. No expenditure for repairs of premises or any machinery shall be incurred, without a written order from the Committee or house-directors.

11. The Committee shall yearly publish a report of the state of the Hospital.

12. No person being a member of the Committee shall furnish for profit any goods, provisions, or other articles, for the use of, or on account of, the Hospital, or be concerned in any contract for supplying the same, or be employed for hire, or wages, or profit, in any office or employment under the charity.

Treasurer.

13. The treasurer, if present, shall take the chair at all meetings of the Committee, in the absence of the president or vice-presidents. He shall keep an account at the bankers', and all moneys received for the use of the Hospital shall be paid to such account; he shall honour all cheques signed, as provided in Rule 10; and the signature of the secretary shall be a sufficient warranty that the cheques purporting to be so signed are properly signed, and shall be an indemnity to the treasurer against risk.

Auditors.

14. Three gentlemen shall be appointed annually at the meeting of the Committee in November, who shall audit the accounts of the Institution for the current year, and approve an abstract of all receipts and disbursements to be prepared by the secretary, and laid before the annual general meeting in February.

Monthly Directors.

15. The Committee shall at their first meeting, in the month of February, elect three members of their own body to be directors of the Hospital, in addition to the trustees and two senior physicians, who shall be ex officio directors. And the Committee may appoint one of such directors to be the chairman, who shall retain his office for the ensuing twelve months, the Committee appointing the other directors, excepting the ex officio directors, monthly. Two of the directors to form a quorum.

16. They shall from time to time cause the beds, clothes, and apparel belonging to the Hospital to be examined, and shall report thereon, if necessary, to the Committee. They shall inspect the tradesmen's bills, and take care that the provisions, bedding, clothing, furniture, and every article for the use of the Hospital, be supplied on the most reasonable terms; they shall order in writing all permanent stores.

17. They shall be authorised in all respects to enforce the observance of the regulations of the Hospital; they shall notice and report to the Committee any irregularity or misconduct on the part of the officers, servants, or patients of the charity, and shall, at every meeting of the Committee, cause a statement of the house expenditure to be produced for the preceding month. They shall appoint the porters, nurses, and other menial servants of the Hospital, and dismiss them for misconduct.

17A. The chairman of the directors shall, during the intervals between their meetings, be authorised to exercise the functions of the directors in any matter of urgency, he reporting, at their next meeting, what he shall have done under this authority.

Physicians.

18. There shall be two physicians and two assistant physicians, who shall be Fellows or Members (formerly called Licentiates) of the Royal College of Physicians of London; and also a consulting surgeon, who shall be a Fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons.

19. The physicians and assistant physicians shall be elected by the governors at large; and no governor shall be qualified to vote, unless he shall have become a governor three months before a vacancy is declared.

20. One of the physicians shall visit the Hospital at least once every day, and at such times as they may deem necessary. They shall have the power of dismissing any patient or convalescent for refractory conduct or disobedience of orders.

Assistant Physicians.

21. In case of the illness or necessary absence of either of the physicians, one of the assistant physicians shall attend regularly in his stead. Such attendances are to be reported to the Committee.

Hospital Pupils.

22. No medical student shall be permitted to visit the Hospital unless in company with one of the physicians, and unless he is regularly entered or registered as a pupil.

Resident Medical Officer.

23. The resident medical officer shall reside constantly at the Hospital, and shall devote himself entirely to the duties of his office; and, previously to his election, he shall be required to produce satisfactory testimonials to the Committee.

24. He shall superintend the patients between the visits of the physicians, and the dispensary shall be exclusively under his control. In the absence of the Committee and house-directors, he shall be recognised as the head of the establishment.

25. Accurate registers of the patients admitted, as well as of the remedies employed for their recovery, shall be kept, which registers shall be the property of the Hospital; he shall produce a special report every month, to be laid before the Committee.

26. When the number of patients shall be great, a medical assistant shall be appointed by the house-directors, subject to the confirmation of the Committee, and he shall receive such remuneration as the Committee shall from time to time determine.

Honorary Secretary.

27. There shall be an honorary secretary, who shall also be a member of the Committee, and chosen annually with them. He shall be at liberty to attend all deputations to public bodies and private persons. He shall communicate with persons concerning the affairs of the Hospital during the intervals between the monthly meetings of the Committee, and shall report to the Committee, at their next meeting, all special or important events that shall have occurred within his knowledge during the month. He shall also assist the treasurer in the discharge of his duties when necessary.

Secretary and House Steward.

28. The duties of this officer shall be to reside in the Hospital, if required by the Committee, and, in the absence of the house-directors, to have the management of the domestic affairs of the Hospital, under the general superintendence of the resident medical officer. He shall be required to enter into a bond, with sufficient sureties, for the due and faithful performance of his duties. He shall also perform the several duties specified in the bye-laws.

Matron.

29. The duties of the matron shall principally relate to the wards, the kitchen, and the laundry. She shall exercise a strict superintendence over the nurses, shall have the charge of linen, bedding, glass, crockery, and ordinary kitchen and scullery stores, subject to the general supervision of the house-steward ; and shall visit every ward of the Hospital at least three times in the day. She shall also perform the several duties specified in the bye-laws.

Collector.

30. The duties of this officer shall be—

To call on subscribers and collect all donations and subscriptions of the Hospital ; to give only authorised printed receipts for the same ; to attend all meetings, when required ; to keep correct lists and duplicate lists of all donations and subscriptions, with the residences of the donors and subscribers made up from day to day ; to pay weekly all moneys he may receive to the bankers ; to deliver weekly to the secretary reports in writing of all moneys received and paid, with the balance at the bankers ; to keep the accounts regularly entered in the collector's cash book ; to deliver a copy of the annual report to each subscriber ; and to give such security, with sureties, for the due and faithful performance of his duties, as may be required.

Nurses.

31. The head nurse in each ward shall attend principally to the patients, and to the keeping of the wards clean and quiet.

32. The under nurses shall be under the direction of the head nurses, and shall perform the more menial offices of the Hospital.

Porter and Engineer.

33. The porter and the engineer shall be employed as the Committee or directors may think proper. They shall not absent themselves without the permission of the house-directors or resident medical officer.

Trustees.

34. The legal estate in the lands, buildings, and premises of the Hospital shall be vested in five trustees, new trustees being appointed when vacancies occur at a general meeting of the governors.

35. All legacies of £100 and upwards, unless otherwise directed by the testators, shall be invested for the benefit of the Hospital, in the names of three trustees, to be called trustees of the fund.

36. No variation in the usual gratuities and fixed salaries shall be made, unless the Committee be specially summoned for that purpose, and unless the proposed addition or diminution be confirmed by a subsequent Committee.

Bye-laws.

37. The bye-laws which shall from time to time be made by the Committee shall be open to the inspection of any subscriber, and shall contain, among other things, a full specification of the duties of the resident medical officer, the matron, and other officers of the Institution, with the practices usually adopted for their election ; which specification shall be read out to every individual before his appointment, and referred to on all occasions of doubt.
